Adele Jeanne Emanuel, Thomas A Emanuel : How To Be A Competent Trustee - Book 3: On-Going Trusts (Volume 3) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised How To Be A Competent Trustee - Book 3: On-Going Trusts (Volume 3):

This book is essential for people involved with a revocable living trust. If you are a trustee of an on-going trust, with either existing or future beneficiaries, you will acquire very valuable information about your responsibilities from this book. On-going trusts present challenges which are not experienced by trustee who perform immediate distributions. The authors have tremendous experience and have dealt with and counseled on-going trustees on both their common and their unusual problems. Presented in a helpful question and answer format, the text is easy reading. It handles technical matters easily and simply without legal jargon. An ordinary book about trustee duties might be tough going but this one actually proves interesting.

About the Author JEANNE EMANUEL is a practicing estate planning attorney. She has over 40 years of experience, the last 32 solely in the area of estate planning. She graduated with honors from Western State University College of Law and is now a nationally and internationally known estate planner, speaker and author. Jeanne is also a gifted artist who loves to paint birds, wildlife and California beach scenes. She is happiest when traveling and exploring with her husband anywhere in the world. Thomas Emanuel acts as a professional fiduciary and trustee for selected estates and has worked in the estate planning and trust administration field for more than 25 years. He holds a Masters degree from Georgetown University. Tom is an accomplished writer and speaker. He is a voracious reader and loves to travel with his wife. The Emanuels make their home in northern Baja California, Mexico. This book is their fourth collaboration as authors, but the first they have produced as a series because of the extensive nature of the topic.
