Will be starting my virtual business in a matter of months! Exactly as advertised.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Three StarsBy OfficeProfessional518OK3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. I really enjoyed this bookBy AshleyI really enjoyed this book. I purchased this from and after reading I decided to purchase the complete training from 713 training. I didn't initially intend on starting a VBA business but this book convinced me to give it a shot. This book has great information for anyone starting any type of business. I will try to update this review as I go through the bankruptcy training package.

How to Start a Virtual Bankruptcy Assistant Service is the authoritative instruction manual of the virtual bankruptcy assistant field. For over five months, Victoria Ring, the developer of the virtual bankruptcy field revised, rewrote, and added brand new text to the book so that it complies with the most updated information available. This new FIFTH edition has been expanded to include the following new topics: * Words of wisdom from successful virtual bankruptcy assistants * Advice from attorneys who use virtual bankruptcy assistants in their law practice * A quick-start guide for starting a virtual bankruptcy assistant service * How to price your virtual bankruptcy assistant services properly in the beginning * Updated information for conducting online research, judgments, etc * Updated information regarding bankruptcy software programs * Mortgage cram down and strip down issues (BRAND NEW!) COMPLETELY REVISED SECTIONS: * The client intake interview process has completely been rewritten to include more recent examples * Added: The proper way to review the client intake forms for completion (a great time saver) * Added: The problems using Rapid Import features within your bankruptcy software * Added: How to do online court records searches THE BIGGEST CHANGE TO THE BOOK IS: Chapter 6: Preparation of the bankruptcy petition. This chapter was totally revamped from the previous version (published almost 3 years ago.) Since that time, Victoria has trained 500+ new students and worked on 100s of bankruptcy petitions. This additional knowledge and insight was added to this chapter. ALSO... * Samples of actual pleadings and bankruptcy notices so you can recognize the major ones used in Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy * Samples of actual customer letters that your attorney may wish to use for clients * Samples of actual marketing letters that have been successful for other virtual bankruptcy assistants PLUS... * A brand new section of 100s of web links to save you money, including vendor contacts specifically utilized by the author in the establishment of her own virtual bankruptcy assistant service * How to use PDF versions of federal forms and save money purchasing forms from the software companies * Tips for virtual bankruptcy assistants starting their first service business * How the virtual bankruptcy assistant field has expanded and what the future holds for you AND WE DID NOT FORGET MARKETING Other marketing options, including social marketing has now made marketing FREE or very low-cost. These options were not available when the previous version of this book was written. Therefore, a new Chapter 8 was added that contains all the up-to-date marketing techniques available today with links to everything you need to use right away.

How to Start a Virtual Bankruptcy Assistant Service is not just for virtual bankruptcy assistants. I used it to train my staff and the improvements in the preparation of our bankruptcy petitions is phenomenal. --Larry McKee, Attorney at Law I used this book to start my virtual bankruptcy assistant business. After learning the skill I found a bankruptcy attorney who files about 150 petitions per month. From this one attorney I have enough work for myself plus 2 other people. I recommend this book to everyone who enjoys working in the legal field. --Lisa Williams, Cape Coral FL Three cheers to Victoria Ring who wrote this book and made it so easy to understand. Her training techniques are second to none. I had absolutely no legal training. But now I work for 5 attorneys and earn an excellent income. --Sonya Banks, VirtualPetitions.Com About the Author Victoria Ring is well known throughout the Chapter 7 and 13 bankruptcy industry. She is the developer of the virtual bankruptcy assistant field, founder of the National Association of Virtual Bankruptcy Assistants, developer of the first exam to accurately measure the petition skills of law firm personnel and on July 5, 2010, she introduced the first online bankruptcy petition training school for both Chapter 7 and Chapter 13. Her first class consisted of four attorneys and four paralegals and Class No. 1 graduated on July 31, 2010. Additionally, Victoria Ring is a Certified Paralegal and Debtor Bankruptcy Specialist.
