From Duke University Press Books : Indonesian Notebook: A Sourcebook on Richard Wright and the Bandung Conference before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Indonesian Notebook: A Sourcebook on Richard Wright and the Bandung Conference:

While Richard Wright's account of the 1955 Bandung Conference has been key to shaping Afro-Asian historical narratives, Indonesian accounts of Wright and his conference attendance have been largely overlooked. Indonesian Notebook contains myriad documents by Indonesian writers, intellectuals, and reporters, as well as a newly recovered lecture by Wright, previously published only in Indonesian. Brian Russell Roberts and Keith Foulcher introduce and contextualize these documents with extensive background information and analysis, showcasing the heterogeneity of postcolonial modernity and underscoring the need to consider non-English language perspectives in transnational cultural exchanges. This collection of primary sources and scholarly histories is a crucial companion volume to Wright's The Color Curtain.

"An invaluable guide to Richard Wright and to a transnational American studies with new geographical coordinates. Gathering together the documents Indonesian and Dutch as well as English written before, during, and after Wright's participation in the 1955 Bandung Conference, Brian Russell Roberts and Keith Foulcher go behind and beyond The Color Curtain, giving us a fresh window on a key historical moment."
