Anthony S. Winer, Mary Ann E. Archer, Lyonette Louis-Jacques : International Law Legal Research before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Law Legal Research:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Three Stars By Amaechi Ipeh. A must have for all legal researchers.

This concise yet comprehensive book is designed to be accessible for the beginner as well as useful for those with more experience. For students, the book can serve as enrichment for a doctrinal course in international law or as the basis for a stand-alone course in international law research. To allow for self-evaluation, the book includes frequent review questions to help assure retention. For practitioners new to the international area, each type of search tool and search strategy is covered in detail with explanations to provide background comprehension. This book is part of the International Legal Research Series, edited by Mark E. Wojcik, The John Marshall Law School.

About the Author Anthony S. Winer is a professor of law at William Mitchell College of Law. Mary Ann E. Archer is a retired Associate Director of the Warren E. Burger Law Library at William Mitchell College of Law. Lyonette Louis-Jaques is a Foreign and International Law Librarian and Lecturer in Law at The University of Chicago Law School.
