

(Free pdf) International Succession

International Succession

From Oxford University Press
*audiobook / ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#4703635 in Books 2015-10-20Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 7.00 x 2.30 x 9.80l, .0 #File Name:
0198727267816 pages | File size: 64.Mb

From Oxford University Press : International Succession before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Succession:

This new edition has been extended to include chapters on Poland, Russia, Singapore, and US - Illinois, making this the most comprehensive analysis of succession laws available.Each country analysis is based on a similar set of questions to ensure that all issues are tackled for every jurisdiction and to enable the reader to make easy comparisons between the countries included. The book also considers the law at regional level in the European Union explaining the effect of recent EU legislation with regard to harmonization, and considering the impact of the European Succession Regulation post-implementation. Now covering 53 jurisdictions, this work is an invaluable reference source for those advising on matters of international succession, especially in cases where there are cross-border elements.

from previous edition: "This is a splendid resource, not only for the modern private client lawyer, but also for litigants and academics alike... Garb and Wood's meticulously researched work is an invaluable acquisition in any law library." --Phillip Taylor MBE, Richmond Green Chambers
About the Author
Louis Garb, Solicitor, Louis Garb Co.
John Wood, Consultant, Herbert Smith Freehills LLP
Louis Garb BA, LLB is an Advocate at Louis Garb Co. in Israel, where he practises extensively in international succession, international civil litigation, international family law, international child abduction, international probate, probate litigation, and the enforcement of civil judgments.
John Wood is a Consultant at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP in London. His expertise covers all aspects of trusts, contentious and non-contentious trusts and estates.