Gabriel Moens, Peter Gillies : International Trade and Business: Law, Policy and Ethics before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Trade and Business: Law, Policy and Ethics:

This book is an ideal sourcebook for students and practitioners who are interested in international business transactions and want to gain familiarity with the law and practice of international trade law, policies and ethics. It contains eleven chapters, which deal extensively with the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, The UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts, Incoterms 2000, Carriage of Goods by Sea, Land and Air, Letters of Credit law, the World Trade Organization, international intellectual property law, anti-dumping and countervailing laws and international commercial arbitration law. Each chapter examines an important aspect of international trade and business by describing and analyzing the relevant law, policies and ethical issues, posing tutorial problems or providing sample examination questions and lists of references and incorporating extracts from relevant international documents and conventions.

About the Author Gabriel Moens is Professor of Law and Head, Graduate School of Law at the University of Notre Dame, Australia. Peter Gillies is Professor of Law in the Business Law Department, Macquarie University, Sydney.
