But it must also be read and the information taken seriously by any serious paralegal. Let me ask you: during the course of a case the client trusts you, even likes you, do you answer his/her questions? Or do you defer the clients questions to the busy or absent attorney? You need to know the answer to that question and answers to many more questions that will keep you from causing harm to client and keep you out of serious trouble. The law is serious business and the consequences for not knowing your duties as a paralegal are serious to say the least.
