Quick Prep: Investigating Long-Term Care Options is an authoritative, insider's perspective on some of the key issues from the elder attorney's perspective to consider when a family or individual is making long-term care decisions. Featuring partners and founders from firms across the nation, these experts guide the reader through the decision-making process for purchasing long-term care insurance, planning for at-home care, and visiting and evaluating nursing homes and other facilities. Additionally, these top lawyers reveal their advice on where to find the most valuable resources and discuss the importance of planning early in order to avoid hasty decision-making if an unexpected health problem does occur. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this complex area of law. Chapters Include: 1. Julian E. Gray, Chair, Elder Law Practice Group, Springer Bush Perry PC - "Planning for Long-Term Care: An Overview" 2. April D.
