Shahzad Siddiqui, Mufti Talha Ahmad Azami : Islamic Wills, Trusts and Estates: Planning for this World and the Next before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Islamic Wills, Trusts and Estates: Planning for this World and the Next:

Whether you encounter Shari a law in your practice or whether you are completely new to it, this book covers all the technical aspects of Shari'a succession laws. Covering all aspects of Shari'a succession and estate planning, along with technical details of the Shari'a mawarith (laws of succession), the book includes practical case studies and calculations showing different potential inheritance outcomes. The book also discusses, in considerable detail, aspects of Shari'a compliant will and trust drafting, as well as lifetime giving and charitable gifts, and provides useful precedent documents. An informative book for anyone who wants to know more about how the Islamic donative trust industry works.

About the Author Shahzad Siddiqui is a Toronto-based lawyer and Chief Legal Officer of Broadwater Capital Inc., an Islamic finance firm he founded with two investment bankers at TD Waterhouse. He has written several publications in the area of Islamic finance: he is the author of Shari'a-Compliant Private Equity: a Primer for the Executive, which was published by Euromoney in 2010 and is the world's first English language book on the subject. Mufti Talha Ahmad Azami is a U.K. based Sharia scholar specializing in Islamic commercial law. He serves as the inhouse Sharia manager for BMB Islamic, and plays an instrumental role in the management of the firm's Shari'a advisory services. Mufti Talha is responsible for Shari'a structuring, screening and monitoring, research and publications. He has successfully edited and project managed the ground-breaking Global Islamic Finance Report 2010 and 2011 (GIFR 2010 GIFR 2011).
