Igor Primoratz : Justifying Legal Punishment (Studies in Applied Philosophy) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Justifying Legal Punishment (Studies in Applied Philosophy):

While the philosophy of punishment is dominated by utilitarian and "mixed" theories, this study, written in the analytic tradition but also drawing on the views of Hegel, argues for a purely retributive view: all the main questions facing a theory of punishment are answered in terms of justice and desert, without any concessions to social expediency.
