I purchased this book to help me out with a research paper and i was able to just flip through the categorized pages to find exactly what i was looking for. I wasted no time, just went to the site i knew would have the exact information i needed. It is so easy to carry around with you, and its a lot easier than having to click on a hundred links. I definetly recommend this book to anyone who doesn't want to waste time and wants to do their research quick and easy! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. All I can say is Wow! By The Greedy Associate Surfless has outdone themselves with this comprehensive guide to law sites. This book must have thousands of sites of them. Why bother with Lexis and WestLaw when you can get your cases printed out for free!

With the explosion of law-related sites on the Internet, many surfers require a resource to help them find relevant materials quickly and easily. This guide aims to be that resource and shows the most useful legal sites available.

I had no idea that some of these things were available online! I thought Lexis and Westlaw were my only options. With this guide I will graduate with the ability to find law related materials without depending upon pay services. -- Adam Goozh, 3L Georgetown University Law Center Surfless Find More! Law Quickly Easily On The Internet is well-organized, sensibly presented, and should prove to be a great time-saver for the busy legal researcher. -- Kevin J. Hourihan, Reference Librarian, Tulane Law Library This guide is an effective and efficient tool to aid in Internet researching. I didn't know all of these legal sites existed before using this guide. -- Nicole Orfanello, Young Conaway Stargatt Taylor, LLP About the Author This guide was compiled by Shane A. Pollin, a member of the Maryland Bar. Mr. Pollin graduated from Tulane Law School with honors in 1998 and completed his undergraduate studies with honors from Vanderbilt University. While attending Tulane Law School he conducted extensive research into various Internet related legal topics including Internet telephony, maritime law resources on the Internet and family law resources on the Internet. Mr. Pollin has spoken publicly on the topic of Internet legal research and has been published in the Tulane Maritime Law Journal, an organization in which he held an editorial position.
