If you have a special needs trust and are dealing with SSI or SSDI, then you should own this. It is written in simple lay-man terms and is a wealth of information. I recommend it highly

Legal Planning for Special Needs is a must have resource for parents of children with disabilities and the professionals and advocates who assist them. In an easy-to-read, conversational style, the author covers the essential elements of SSI, guardianship, and estate planning when there is a child with a disability in the family. This book, which updates an earlier edition, covers the 2009 changes in the Massachusetts guardianship laws.

About the AuthorBarbara D. Jackins is an attorney with 30 years experience in legal planning and disability. Her Belmont, Massachusetts law practice focuses on areas of the law that affect people with disabilities and their families: guardianship, public benefits, and estate planning. As a parent and professional, she has served on the Governors Commission on Mental Retardation: Task Force on Public-Private Partnerships. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the NWW Committee for Community Living, Inc., in Newton, Massachusetts. This non-profit agency provides community housing to people with developmental disabilities. Ms. Jackins is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and a 1978 graduate of Suffolk Law School. In addition to writing Legal Planning for Special Needs, she co-authored The Special Needs Trust Administration Manual: A Guide for Trustees.
