before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Legally Mom: Real Women's Stories of Balancing Motherhood and Law Practice:

Legally Mom profiles the lives of more than twenty women practicing law at different stages of their career and with varied ages of children. This collection brings together a selection of deeply felt, personal narratives by smart, interesting women who explore the continued inequality of the sexes in law practice and suggest changes that could make firms more family friendly workplaces.

About the Author Anne Murphy Brown is an Assistant Professor and Director of Legal Studies at Ursuline College in Pepper Pike, Ohio. She currently lives in Cleveland, Ohio, with her husband and three children.
